

A small step in change

Rada Alexia Daniela

Every time I pass by this area, the garbage piles are increasing. There are even piles of old clothes that affect the ecosystem. For example, I saw frogs jumping through the garbage. There is garbage all over the area where people have access, but there isn't a single rubbish bin. The solution is to put trash cans and organize an event where people collect the trash.

